MISSIONARIES TO ASHLAND, MO

Isn't it such a blessing to see something that you have prayed about come to fruition? To know that God wants to give us the very desires of our heart and hears those prayers. God has sure been so good to us here at Heartland. He continues to show us that we are indeed exactly where He would have us to be.

In our last news letter we mentioned our new steeple that we were preparing to install. We can now mark that right on off of our list. Mission complete! Bro Randy Taylor and Sister Debbie came to be a blessing to us once again. The steeple is up and she is beautiful! Rocky Coleman did a fantastic job on the fabrication and with the help of the Taylor's, Rocky and Buddy Wells, the installation went without any issues. We hope that this steeple will help us to be a lighthouse to the community.

On Sep 29th, we had an outdoor service with dedication of the steeple. We had about 8 first time visitor's for that service. It was a wonderful Lord's day and the fellowship following the service was sweet too.

The summer has come to a close and fall has arrived here in Missouri. Fall brings about a busy schedule for the Amburgey's most of the time. We are so thankful for the invitation to the missions conference hosted by First Baptist Sullivan with Pastor Chester Lahmann. Though we were only able to attend for one night of the conference, it was sure a time of encouragement for us. We are so thankful for this church and the support and faith that they continue to show us.

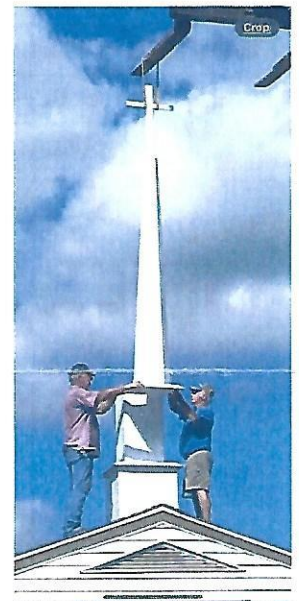

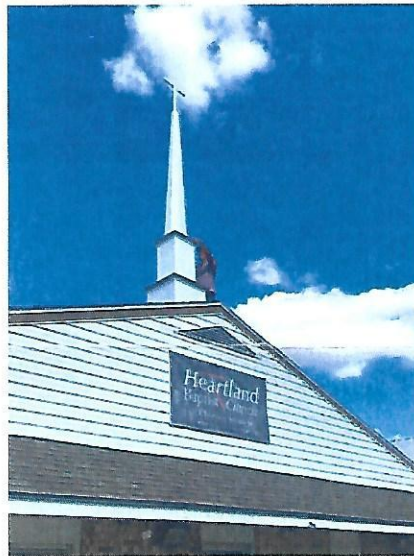

The Annual Central States Associational meeting was held Oct 19th and hosted by the Mt. Calvary Baptist Church, Pastor John Tarter in Sikeston, Missouri. This was another opportunity for our cup to be filled with encouragement and fellowship amongst God's people. Wonderful messages challenging our hearts to keep on keeping on in the work that God has called us to do.

We do ask that you continue to pray for Heartland. The last few weeks services have been such a wonderful encouragement. Our attendance is coming back and the spiritual growth among our church family continues. In our transparency, we have had some days of discouragement. We don't allow ourselves to stay there for very long as we are reminded to press towards the mark. To run the race. To wait on the Lord. He is the author and the finisher of our faith and He is a good, good father.

If you ever have any questions for us, please reach out. We will do our very best to answer those questions best we can.

Pray for our upcoming endeavors. The next few months is a very busy time of ministry for us. It's a special opportunity to share the true meaning of Christmas, the birth of our Savior. We pray that God gives the opportunities and we recognize them and share freely.
