

The Amburgey's

Missionaries to Ashland, MO

I Corinthians 15:58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know the your labor is not in vain in the Lords. The above charge in scripture does not always come naturally. Sometimes we get discouraged and feel like we have entered a season of being stagnant. And then, when you realize that it isn't about your feelings, but your faithfulness, God reminds you that it is all in His hands. We have been having some wonderful services on Sunday morning and Wednesday nights at Heartland Baptist. I would say that we have had so many first time visitors, however they have chosen to return service after service, and we are so grateful! This past Sunday, with nine of our regular's absent, we had about 30 in the service to worship together. What an encouragement for our hearts and soul. About five of those were young men between the ages of 16 and 24. We continue to pray that God will pour out His blessing and bless our efforts as we serve here in Ashland, MO.

Moving forward, we are praying about a second ministry that God has been dealing with our hearts about. The Lord has impressed our hearts about the town of Holts Summit. This is a town about 22 miles from Ashland off of Hwy 54 which connect Interstate 70 to the state capital of Jefferson City. Have you ever had an impression on your heart, and after some time you discard it to the back of your mind? And then God begins to send you these reminders that start out subtle and then become a little louder with clarity. That is exactly where we are. Tawnya meets with a friend frequently for coffee who used to live in Ashland and moved to Holts Summit. Our son, Matthew moved to Holts Summit about 8 months ago. Over the past few months, God has continued to place people in our path that live or have connections to Holt Summit. Several of these individuals have such potential in service of the Lord and currently are not serving. Please hel[us pray about this. It would start out as being a midweek Bible study, much the same way Heartland began. We are currently searching for a location for this Bible Study. With Heartland, it began in our living room. This will not be an option now as we live in Hartsburg.
